Southern District of New York

Re: Hardy, et al. v. Kaszycki & Sons, et. al., No. 1:83-cv-06346 (TPG)

Dear Judge Griesa:

I appeared before your Honor representing the plaintiffs in the above matter, with Wendy Sloan. Ms. Sloan has given me copies of correspondence to your Honor from Jay Goldberg, Esq. and Lawrence S. Rosen Esq., the latter of whom is representing Donald J. Trump and the Trump Organization on the issue of whether certain confidential settlement documents in the Hardy case should be unsealed.

At the time this matter was before you, I was a member of another law firm and presently practice law as senior counsel at Outten & Golden LLP.

Ms. Sloan is no longer practicing law and asked me to respond to the correspondence you have received.

Ms. Sloan informs me that the plaintiffs in the above matter are deceased, and that she knows of no one who was a member of the plaintiff class that has a privacy interest in the documents in this matter that are presently sealed as confidential, nor does she or I know of any reason why those documents should not at this time be unsealed.

I am, of course, available to your Honor if you have questions of me concerning this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
